VESTRY CANDIDATES

SANDY WYMAN

I first visited the Westhampton Beach area in the summer of 1987 and joined Saint Mark's shortly thereafter. My wife, Geri, and I were married at St Marks in Sept 1989 and slowly migrated to the East End full time in the early 90's. Our daughter, Noelle, was born in 1995 and baptized at SaintMarks in December of that year. We currently live in our third and hopefully forever home in Quogue. I work full time as a senior financial advisor for Arete Wealth Management. I have faithfully served on the Vestry both as a member and as a warden on and off for over 30 years. We have experienced a lot of changes over that period but are on a renewed growth path thanks primarily to Fr. Chris's leadership and guidance. I would appreciate your vote and pledge to support this exciting path we are experiencing.

DIANE FEIL

My name is Diane Feil and I have been a member of St Marks Church for over 10 years along with my husband and 2 teenage daughters. Our daughters have attended Sunday School, been Acolytes, volunteered in the choir and volunteered to help out with Sunday School. We all try to do our part and help where help is needed. It's been a privilege to be a part of this church. Taking part in the choir, altar guild, and vestry has brought me much pleasure in getting to know more about the other members. This church, I feel, is full of such kind, selfless, and genuinely caring people. Being among this family in Christ is such a blessing. All of the outreach that happens in this church is inspirational, with all that everyone volunteers. I would love to continue on in the Vestry so I can continue to do my part.

ASHLEY MCLEAN

Hello! My name is Elizabeth McLean, but I am known by my middle name, Ashley. I was raised as an Episcopalian and my relationship with Saint Mark's began about 14 years ago, when I began coming regularly with my 2 young sons and often my father. I have served on the vestry for the past three years, and before that, I ran the church garden as a pandemic hunger relief program, did Habitat for Humanity with the church after Hurricane Sandy, and volunteered with Love in A Dish among other projects. I enjoy serving our church and I hope to continue to do so. For me, Saint Mark's is about community and I deeply enjoy being involved with the vestry and helping to guide Saint Mark's towards the future.

In a conversation about his teaching and preaching style, Michael Curry notes with a laugh that hymns and songs of faith were always a part of the mix. "I learned what I believed in the songs I heard my family—especially my grandmother—sing. We sang our faith every day."

Out of that strong foundation, Bishop Curry shares the music of his childhood—the songs that have grown with him to shape an adult and vibrant faith.

Week 4: Reflections on the Resurrection

During the Easter season, Sermons That Work is pleased to present reflections from some of the newest bishops of The Episcopal Church on the resurrection of our Lord. Check back each week for a brief exploration of how Jesus Christ's rising from the grave changes everything. To listen to this reflection, scan the QR code on this page and subscribe to the Sermons That Work podcast.

During Eastertide, we lift high the good news that God's saving work in human history has been accomplished solely through the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. We proclaim that in Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting our trespasses against us, and that salvation is not earned by any human effort at all but received by faith in the finished work of Christ.

But let's be honest: Sometimes this all sounds too good to be true – a well-meaning sentiment, but not terribly helpful when confronted with day-to-day reality. In the face of darkness, despair and death, we need resurrection, not sentiment.

We know all too well that life is filled with suffering. Some of us feel paralyzing guilt and condemnation because of the sins we've committed. Some of us feel overwhelming shame because of the sins committed against us. Some of us feel despair because of the impulses and addictions that seem to have power over us. Some of us are shrouded in the darkness of depression. Some of us are suffocated by grief because death has taken a child, a spouse, a parent or a friend.

Rather than minimize darkness, despair and death, Jesus experiences it and comforts us in it right now. The one who stepped out of the grave on Easter morning has the last word. We're comforted knowing that Jesus Christ, God himself, knows what it's like to suffer, and that his Resurrection is a guarantee of our future resurrection to eternal life. Because Jesus conquered death, we know that darkness is not the end of the story or the last word on us. The risen Christ says the last word on us is "hope."

The Bible teaches that our suffering is a place to experience God's sustaining grace in our weakness (2 Cor. 1:8-9, 12:9-10). Grief, Scripture clearly says, is a natural response when we experience loss, but it can be tempered by the good news of Christ's Resurrection. Because of his victory over death, all threats against us are tamed. He conquers all our enemies: Satan, sin, hell and the grave. The Resurrection not only readjusts our horizon, but it completely transforms our understanding of the future as well.

Where darkness, despair and death had reigned, Jesus breaks in with light, liberation and love. A picture of this comes from Robert Louis Stevenson, the author of "Treasure Island" who lived in Scotland in the 19th century. As a boy, he and his family lived on a hillside overlooking a small town. He was intrigued by the work of the old lamplighters, who went about with ladders and torches, lighting the streetlights for the night.

One evening, as Robert stood watching with fascination, his nurse asked him, "Robert, what in the world are you looking at out there?" With great excitement, he exclaimed, "Look at that man! He's punching holes in the darkness!"

Jesus Christ, "the light of the world" (John 8:12), has entered our suffering to punch holes in the darkness and lead us into the dawn of his grace, love and eternal life. While it is true that in the midst of life, we are in death, what's more true is that, because of the Resurrection, in the midst of death, we are in life.
