Choir Practice is on Thursday at 5:30 PM in the church. The only requirement is the desire to make a joyful noise. For further information contact Stephen Hunt at stephenhuntmusic@gmail.com.

We Need Your Help on Sunday Mornings as a Lay Eucharistic Minister or Acolyte. Please contact John Kern at John@jkernlaw.com.

Sunday School. takes place during the 10 AM service in the Atwater Room. Contact Madeline Glover at grahamkramer@hotmail.com or Margie DeCaro at dec3@optonline.net if you have any questions Altar Flowers: If you would like to dedicate flowers for the Altar contact Laura Bott at 631-722-4749 or email her at Laura.bott17@gmail.com. In November there are two vases available for the 13th and 20th, and one vase for the 27th. Each vase is $40.

Adopt-a-Vet: It is that time again.....please consider helping. This year we are looking for twin size bedding sets (preferably bed-in-a-bag with comforter and sheets) or gift cards of any increment. Donations will go to Beacon House to help our homeless and in need veterans. Items need to be delivered to Barbara Rasmussen by November 8. Kindly contact her at bresq99@gmail.com. As always thank you for your support.

Alanon now meets at St. Mark's both in-person and online via zoom on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in the Atwater Room. Please speak with Fr. Chris if you are interested in joining this group.

Ways to Help the People of Ukraine...When the donated non-perishable items were delivered to the Ukrainian Church in Riverhead we were told that what they need right now are bandages, pain killers, burn care products and new winter clothing. A complete list is posted on the bulletin board next to the church office. Please help us collect as much of these necessary items as we can. There is a box for them in the narthex. You can also visit our website at www.stmarkswhb.org for ways to help.

Maureen's Haven: "Thank you" for donations to Maureen's Haven. A box for donations, along with a list of suggested items such as individual containers of non-perishable food, is in the office lobby.

September 24, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The people and dioceses of Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic desperately need our help. Hurricane Fiona has brought the most recent wave of devastation, leaving many without power and healthy water supply.

We are in close contact with the offices of Bishop Morales and Bishop Mota, and have assured them of our prayers and tangible support. I am asking that every parish take up a special offering in direct relief of the dioceses of Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic, just as soon as possible.

Please make all checks payable to “The Episcopal Diocese of Long Island” and send as follows:

Office of Stewardship
The Episcopal Diocese of Long Island 36 Cathedral Avenue
Garden City, NY 11530
Note: “Puerto Rico/Dominican Republic Relief”

Please direct all inquiries to the Rev. Canon Suzanne M. Culhane at sculhane@dioceseli.org.

Thank you for answering the call to relieve human suffering in Christ’s name. Please continue to hold all the people of Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic in your prayers through the coming weeks and months of recovery.

We will continue to provide updates as received. Faithfully,

The Rt. Rev. Lawrence C. Provenzano
Bishop of Long Island

UPDATE 10/7/2022: Thank you to those who have already generously responded. We have added Cuba and Florida to our relief effort. Please continue to pray for all impacted by hurricanes and encourage offerings in your parishes. We will process donations through the end of October. Thank you!

BULLETIN INSERTS

October 16, 2022 – Pentecost 19 (C)

Meet the Young Adult Service Corps: Nina Boe, 2013 - 2015

In my time with the Young Adult Service Corps (YASC), I had the pleasure of serving with Igreja Episcopal Anglicana do Brasil (Episcopal Anglican Church of Brazil) from 2013 to 2015, first in the Diocese of São Paulo and then in the Diocese of Rio de Janeiro. In my first placement, I supported the office of the Provincial Secretary and in my second year, I supported the diocesan office as well as the parish community of the Most Holy Trinity. I quickly realized there was a reason we talked about flexibility so much at mission orientation, because I didn't really have a "normal" day or routine. Some days I focused on developing my Portuguese skills so I could help translate a sermon or article into English. Other days I was at the parish supporting our outreach ministries. I also had the privilege of visiting other dioceses, meeting with bishops, clergy, and lay leaders, and learning about ministries across the country so I could help share their stories within and beyond Brazil. I was able to visit places even some of my Brazilian friends had never been to because the church was there.

I wanted to serve with YAC for many reasons. I grew up in diverse communities and consistently encountered God, faith, and love in the people around me – people of different cultures, faiths, and traditions. God is already in the world. YASC was a calling to go walk with people and be in community. One of my fondest memories was visiting the Diocese of Brasília and spending time with Bishop Maurício Andrade. The trip included visiting a rural chapel that had historical roots in a quilombo, a community in which many residents were descendants of escaped slaves. The trip to visit them and celebrate the Eucharist together involved driving on paved roads and dirt roads, taking a barge across a river, and then more dirt roads, occasionally avoiding cattle. This was one of those times that I was the first American many had ever met, and to be able to communicate and connect - to be in community – and share that Christians around the world - whom they would never meet - were praying for them was a blessing for me as well as the people I met.

It has been almost 10 years since I finished my time in Brazil. I learned a great deal and feel that there's so much more to engaging in God's mission than we often realize. Some of my memories of the work I did during those two years have faded, but I carry the people, experiences, and relationships with me to this day. I can't begin to acknowledge the impact this time had on me or love that I felt - and hopefully shared - as we developed a sense of community around the world. We may not all feel called to go and be with others, but there are no borders in our hearts or prayers. God calls us to be in community with God and each other. YASC has played a big role in my answer to that call, and I am deeply grateful. Thank you! Obrigada!

The Young Adult Service Corps is a ministry for Episcopalians ages 21-30 who are interested in exploring their faith in new ways by living and serving in communities around the worldwide Anglican Communion. Learn more at iam.ec/YASC.

A special thank you to all who helped and contributed goodies over the past few months with coffee hour. It has been a wonderful time of sharing and enjoying getting to know each other better.

This Fall, we would like to continue with a more family/ help yourself style coffee hour at both the 8 and 10 services. The coffee, tea, cream ,water, and juice will be provided and prepared weekly for both services. We will rely on sharing snacks such as cake, cookies, doughnuts, fruit, vegetables, cheese, crackers, etc. So please share a snack when you can.

It has been wonderful to see members pitching in with cleanup. Many hands make the task easy. Coffee hour is meant to be a social time not an extra job.

Celebrate Life and Our Stories!

See you at Coffee Hour!

MORE THAN ENOUGH

On Generosity

For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice..." – Luke 18:1-8

I attended Seminary in New York City. It was an amazing experience being out in the fast-paced city. Even though I was from a location that tended to greet, or at least acknowledge, passerby's I had quickly adapted to the head down fast walking culture that was dominant in Manhattan. I had also gotten accustomed to ignoring the people lacking permanent shelter along every New York Street. I had perfected the art of responding to people yet not really listening to what those on the streets were asking from me. Really, I had ceased to notice the face of God in the people around me.

One day while moving quickly through a crosswalk a man started talking to me. I responded that I didn't have any money and kept moving. He shouted at me, that he wasn't even going to ask for money. I stopped embarrassed and turned to listen closely to what he was saying. He just wanted to offer a compliment as he had seen me a few times around the block. I never would have compared myself to the unjust judge, yet there I was prejudging without even taking the time to listen.

Frequently, when thinking about those who are experiencing homelessness, we understand generosity to be the sharing of a few coins, or dollars received when leaving a store. Sometimes we may leave food, tents, some clothes, and while all those things are important and useful how often are we generously listening? Do we just assume that what those experiencing homelessness most want from us is money? Not to imply that tangible resources are not necessary but to recognize that listening to people is an act of generosity. To give of one's time, to respect the reflection of the face of God is an act of generosity, an act of justice. | tens.org

Questions For Reflection:

How do your acts of generosity respect the dignity of every human being?

The Rev. Glenna Huber is the rector of Church of the Epiphany in the District of Columbia, a congregation with a long-standing primary ministry with those experiencing homelessness.

Readings for Sunday, October 16, 2022 – 19 Pentecost (Proper 24C)

The Collect for the Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 32:22-31

A reading from the book of the Genesis.

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Psalm 121 Levavi oculos

- ¹ I lift up my eyes to the hills; *
from where is my help to come?
- ² My help comes from the LORD, *
the maker of heaven and earth.
- ³ He will not let your foot be moved *
and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.
- ⁴ Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel *
shall neither slumber nor sleep;
- ⁵ The LORD himself watches over you; *
the LORD is your shade at your right hand,
- ⁶ So that the sun shall not strike you by day, *
nor the moon by night.
- ⁷ The LORD shall preserve you from all evil; *
it is he who shall keep you safe.
- ⁸ The LORD shall watch over your going out and your coming in, *
from this time forth for evermore.

A reading from Paul's second letter to Timothy.

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

The Gospel*Luke 18:1-8*

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Keep On Praying

Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. Luke 18:1 (NIV)
